06 OCT 17 PM 12: 07 CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

DEPUTY

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

January 2006 Grand Jury Criminal Case No.

INDICTMENT

Title 18, U.S.C., Sec. 152 -Bankruptcy Fraud

The grand jury charges:

Count 1

On or about October 11, 2001, within the Southern District of California, defendant ROLAND C. COLTON did knowingly and fraudulently make a false declaration and statement, under penalty of perjury, of a material matter in relation to a case under Title 11, United States Code, that is In Re: Roland C. Colton, Case No. 01-10562-M7, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of California, in that the defendant falsely stated in Schedule A and Schedule B of his voluntary petition for Chapter 7 bankruptcy relief that he had no legal, equitable, or future interest in real property and certain personal property, including all property owned as community property, or in which he has a life estate, and in any property in which he held rights and powers exercisable for his own benefit, and did not hold such property for someone else, when, in truth and in fact, as defendant ROLAND C. COLTON then well knew, defendant COLTON had legal and equitable title and community property interests and other interests in which he held rights and powers exercisable for his own benefit, in real and personal property located in France and Laguna Niguel, California, and in personal property, such as cash and financial accounts in the United States and in France, all worth in excess of $1.5 million; in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 152(3).

Count 2

On or about January 15, 2002, within the Southern District of California, defendant ROLAND C. COLTON, having taken an oath that he would testify truthfully, and while testifying at a Rule 2004 examination, a proceeding in relation to a case under Title 11, United States Code, that is In Re: Roland C. Colton, Case No. 01-10562-M7, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of California, did knowingly and fraudulently give false and material testimony in the following manner:

- Q: Are there any changes to the schedules of which you are presently aware?
- A: I think the one my attorney referred to we need to make.
- Q: Any other changes?
- A: Not that I can think of.

- Q: So other than amending the schedules to add the Chevron royalty interest, the schedules are true and correct to your knowledge?
- A: I think so.
- Q: And they accurately identify all of your assets and liabilities other than the Chevron royalty?
- A: Yes.

which testimony was false, as defendant ROLAND C. COLTON then and there well knew, in that defendant COLTON failed to disclose that he had legal and equitable title and community property interests and other interests in which he held rights and powers exercisable for his own benefit, in real and personal property located in France and Laguna Niguel, California, and in personal property, such as cash and financial accounts in the United States and in France; in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 152(2).

Count 3

On or about January 15, 2002, within the Southern District of California, defendant ROLAND C. COLTON, having taken an oath that he would testify truthfully, and while testifying at a Rule 2004 examination, a proceeding in relation to a case under Title 11, United States Code, that is In Re: Roland C. Colton, Case No. 01-10562-M7, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of California, did knowingly and fraudulently give false and material testimony in the following manner:

- Q: All right. Sir, we are looking at Exhibit 4, which is your register and statements and checks, and the question pending was are there any other statements or checks of which you are aware that are not in Exhibit 4 for the period?
- A: Not to my knowledge.
- Q: Okay. Is this the only bank account you maintained personally during the period that is reflected in Exhibit 4?
- A: I believe so.
- Q: Okay. Any record that would refresh your recollection to the contrary?
- A: I can't think of anything.

which testimony was false, as defendant ROLAND C. COLTON then and there well knew, in that defendant COLTON failed to disclose that he owned, controlled and personally maintained numerous other bank and financial accounts from September 1, 2000 to October 31, 2001; in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 152(2).

Count 4

On or about January 15, 2002, within the Southern District of California, defendant ROLAND C. COLTON, having taken an oath that he would testify truthfully, and while testifying at a Rule 2004 examination, a proceeding in relation to a case under Title 11, United States Code, that is In Re: Roland C. Colton, Case No. 01-10562-M7, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of California, did knowingly and fraudulently give false and material testimony in the following manner:

Q: Did you contribute anything towards the down payment of the property?

A: No.

which testimony was false, as defendant ROLAND C. COLTON then and there well knew, in that defendant COLTON provided the buyer of the referred to property at least $533,500 toward the down payment for the purchase of the property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 152(2).

Count 5

On or about August 14, 2002, within the Southern District of California, defendant ROLAND C. COLTON, having taken an oath that he would testify truthfully, and while testifying at a Rule 2004 examination, a proceeding in relation to a case under Title 11, United States Code, that is In Re: Roland C. Colton, Case No. 01-10562-M7, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of California, did knowingly and fraudulently give false and material testimony in the following manner:

- Q: Do you know if you paid any foreign taxes in 2001?
- A: I don't believe so.
- Q: Because I see in 2000 you paid I don't know, it seems to me like a lot of foreign taxes about 8500, 8600. Do you know what government or country they were paid to?
- A: I think that's inaccurate.
- Q: Is your tax return inaccurate or is my characterization of Exhibit A to the tax return -
- A: I believe the amount paid was not accurate as indicated on the tax return.

- Q: So you're saying if I look at the tax return I'm going to find a statement that eighty-five, eighty-six in foreign taxes is inaccurate?
- A: Well, this came up during the previous 2004 examination. And when I looked at the information that I transmitted to Mr. Hatch, I think it was $85.86 or whatever the number is.

* * *

- Q: Okay. Here we have Exhibit A, itemized deductions to your 2000 return with the eighty-five, eight-six amount. Is that what you're saying is inaccurate, it should be $85.86?
- A: That's correct.
